To the Honourable Elias Boudinot, John Witherspoon, Abraham Clark, Jonathan Elmer and Silas Condit, Esquires, Delegates representing this State in the Congress of the United States.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Legislature are informed, since their present Meeting, by a Letter from the Honourable Elias Boudinot, Esq. to His Excellency the Governor, that the important and interesting Subject of the Dispute that has long subsisted between the States of New-York and New-Hampshire, and the People on the New Hampshire Grants, calling themselves the State of Verment, is again under the Consideration of Congress, and also requested to give such Instructions on the said Subject, as to them shall appear proper.

The Legislature, on examining the Journals of Congress, find, that the Recognition, as an independent State, of the People on the New-Hampshire Grants, calling themselves the State of Verment, has been resolved on by an almost unanimous Vote of Congress, therefore must conclude that Congress was convinced of the Propriety of the Measure, and are of Opinion that great Regard ought to be had to every Determination of Congress, for Reasons too obvious to mention.

The Legislature will give their Opinion as to some leading Facts, or, on such general Principles, as may point to the final Determination of the Subject in Dispute.

And first, If Part of a former Colony should, at the Beginning of the Revolution, have separated from the Rest, and assumed the Powers of Government, and were in the actual Exercise of an independent Sovereignty de Facto, if such a People should apply to Congress to be received into the Union, as an independent or fourteenth State, we are of Opinion they might be received.

Second, We are of Opinion that Congress, as sovereign Guardians of the United States, when they conceive the general Safety of the common Cause shall require it, can and ought to receive into the Union, as a separate State, any Territory and People that have been, from the Beginning of the Revolution, in the actual Possession of Sovereignty and Independence de Facto, without examining into the Right and Title of such People de Jure.

Third, That, from the Resolutions of Congress of the twentieth of August 1781, it appears, that Congress ought to receive them into the Union as an independent State, provided they have complied with the Preliminary therein contained.

Fourth, That the shedding the Blood of our Citizens, and every Appearance of a Civil War among ourselves at all Times, but more especially at so critical a Period, should be strenuously avoided; but should Congress determine to compel Submission (which however we cannot entertain an Idea of at this Time) the Legislature takes this Opportunity, through their Delegates, to assure them, that the Matter must appear very different from what it now does before they will consent to imbrue their Hands in the Blood of their Brethren, who have fought and bled in one common Cause with them, or to risk the Lives of the People of their Charge in the Attempt.

You are therefore instructed to govern yourselves in the Discussion of this Business on the aforesaid Opinions, and to use your utmost Endeavours in Congress to bring the Matter to such an Issue, as will be most likely to conduce to the general Weal of the Union, and at all Events to oppose every Measure that will endanger the involving the States, or any of them, in a Civil War.

Which Instructions were read, and ordered to be transcribed.

The transcribed Copy of Instructions to the Delegates representing this State in the Congress of the United States, was read and compared,

Ordered, That the Speaker do sign the same.

To the Honourable Elias Bondingt, John Witherspoon, Abraham Clark, Jonathan Elmer and Silas Condict, Esquires, Delegates representing this State in the Congress of the United States:

GENTLEMEN,

A PPLICATION having been made to the Legislature for Instructions on the important Subject of Dispute subsisting between the States of New-York, New-Hampshire, and the People on the New-Hampshire Grants, styling themselves the State of Vermont, which is under the Consideration of Congress, they are of Opinion, (as far as they have Documents to direct their Enquiry) that as the

Competency

Competency of Congress was deemed full and complete at the passing of the Resolutions of the 7th and 20th of August 1781, (each of those States having made an absolute Reference of the Dispute to their final Arbitrament) those Acts must be supposed to be founded on strict Justice and Propriety, nine States having agreed to the Measure, and that great Regard ought to be had to every Determination of Congress where no new Light is thrown upon the Subject, or weighty Matters occur to justify a Reversal of such their Decision, and more especially as it appears that the People on the New-Hampshire Grants have, by an Act of their Legislature, on the 22d of February last, in every Instance, complied with the Preliminaries stated as conditional to such Guarantee.

The Legislature taking up this Matter on general Principles, are further of Opinion, that Congress, considered as the Sovereign Guardians of the United States, ought at all Times to prefer the general Safety of the common Cause to the particular separate Interest of any individual State, and where Circumstances may render such a Measure expedient, it ought certainly to be adopted.

As Jurisdiction appears to be the Object of Contention, the Legislature will never consent to the sending any Part of the Continental Troops into the said Territory to subdue the Inhabitants to the Obedience and Subjection of the State or States that claim their Allegiance.

They disclaim every Idea of imbruining their Hands in the Blood of their Fellow-Citizens, or entering into a Civil War among themselves at all Times, but more especially at so critical a Period as the present, conceiving such a Step to be highly impolitick and dangerous.

You are therefore instructed to govern yourselves in the Discussion of this Business by the aforesaid Opinions as far as they may apply thereto.

GENTLEMEN,

APPLICATION having been made to the Legislature for Instructions on the important Subject of Dispute subsisting between the States of New-York, New-Hampshire, and the People on the New-Hampshire Grants, styling themselves the State of Vermont, which is under the Consideration of Congress, they are of Opinion (as far as they have Documents to direct their Enquiry) that as the Competency of Congress was deemed full and complete at the passing of the Resolutions of the 7th and 20th of August, 1781, (each of those States having made an absolute Reference of the Dispute to their final Arbitrament) those Acts may be supposed to be founded on strict Justice and Propriety, nine States having agreed to the Measure; and that great Regard ought to be had to every Determination of Congress, where no new Light is thrown upon the Subject, or weighty Matters occur to justify a Reversion of such their Decision; and more especially as it appears that the People on the New-Hampshire Grants have, by an Act of their Legislature on the 22d of February last, in every Instance, complied with the Preliminaries, stated as conditional to such Guarantee.

The Legislature, taking up this Matter upon general Principles, are further of Opinion, that Congress, considered as the Sovereign Guardians of the United States, ought at all Times to prefer the general Safety of the common Cause to the particular separate Interest of any individual State, and when Circumstances may render such a Measure expedient, it ought certainly to be adopted.

The Legislature know of no Disposition in Congress to attempt to reduce the said People to Allegiance by Force; but should that be the Case, they will not consent to the sending any Military Force into the said Territory to subdue the Inhabitants to the Obedience and Subjection of the State or States that claim their Allegiance.

They disclaim every Idea of imbruining their Hands in the Blood of their Fellow-Citizens, or entering into a Civil War among themselves at all Times, but more especially at so critical a Period as the present, conceiving such a Step to be highly impolitic and dangerous.

You are therefore intrusted to govern yourselves in the Discussion of this Business by the aforesaid Opinions, as far as they may apply thereto.

‘ Burlington, May 19, 1783.

GENTLEMEN,

PROVIDENCE having been pleased to terminate the late War in a Manner so honourable and advantageous to America, I most heartily congratulate you on the auspicious Event; but let us not flatter ourselves that because the War is over, our Difficulties are at an End. The Advantages to be expected from the Establishment of our Independence, will greatly depend upon our publick Measures, and a Conduct suitable to so important a Blessing. Perhaps at no particular Moment during our whole Conflict with Great-Britain has there been a greater Necessity than at the present Juncture of Unanimity, Vigilance and Exertion. The Glory we have acquired in the War will be resounded through the Universe. God forbid that we should ever tarnish its Lustre by an unworthy Conduct in Times of Peace. We have established our Character as a brave People, and exhibited to the World the most incontestible Proofs that we are determined to sacrifice sice both Life and Fortune in Defence of our Liberties. Heaven has crowned our victorious and heroic Struggles with the most signal Succes ; and our military Exploits have astonished the World. Let us now shew ourfelves worthy of the inestimable Blessings of Freedom by an inflexible Attachment to publick Faith and national Honour. Let us establish our CharaCter as a Sovereign State on the only durable Basis of impartial and universal Justice ; for whatever plausible Sophistry the artful may contrive, or the avaricious be ready from self-interested Motives to adopt, we may depend upon it, that the Observation of the wise Man will, through all Ages, be found an uncontrovertible Truth, that Righteousness exalteth a Nation, but that Sin (of which Injustice is one of the most aggravated) is the Reproach of any People.

To give proper Encouragement to the Commerce of this State, and to prevent as far as possible our Neighbours from reaping those Profits on our Consumption of foreign Manufactures which might be secured to our own Citizens, is doubtless an Object that merits the mature Deliberation of the Legislature.—I lay before the Honourable House a Number of publick Letters and Papers, described in the List herewith transmitted, and marked from No. 1 to 41, many of which, I doubt not, will engage your serious Attention.

WIL. LIVINGSTON.'

WHEREAS Inconveniences and Mischiefs have arisen, and may hereafter arise, from the Uncertainty of Jurisdiction within and on the River Delaware; therefore to prevent the same, and in order that Law and Justice may hereafter in all Cases be executed and take Effect within and upon the said River from Shore to Shore in all Parts and Places thereof, where the same River is the Boundary between the said States, the said Commissioners do agree and establish for and in Behalf of their respective States in Manner following; that is to say,

First. It is declared that the River Delaware from the Station-Point or northwest Corner of New-Jersey, northerly, to the Place upon the said River, where the circular Boundary of the State of Delaware toucheth upon the same in the whole Length and Breadth thereof is and shall continue to be and remain a common Highway, equally free and open for the Use, Benefit and Advantage of the said contracting Parties. Provided nevertheless, That each of the Legislatures of said States shall hold and exercise the Right of regulating and guarding the Fisheries on the said River Delaware, annexed to their respective Shores in such Manner that the said Fisheries may not be unnecessarily interrupted during the Season for catching Shad, by Vessels riding at Anchor on the Fishing-Ground, or by Persons fishing under Claim of a common Right on said River.

Secondly. That each State shall enjoy and exercise a concurrent Jurisdiction within and upon the Water, and not upon the dry Land between the Shores of said River, but in such Sort, nevertheless, that every Ship and other Vessel while riding at Anchor before any City or Town in either State where she hath last laded or unladed, or where it is intended she shall first thereafter either lade or unlade, shall be considered exclusively within the Jurisdiction of such State; and every Vessel fastened to or aground on the Shore of either State, shall in like Manner be considered exclusively within the Jurisdiction of such State; but, that all capital and other Offences, Trespasses or Damages, committed on said River, the juridical Investigation and Determination thereto shall be exclusively vested in the State wherein the Offender or Person charged with such Offence shall be first apprehended, arrested or prosecuted.

Thirdly. That all Islands, Eylots and dry Land within the Bed, and between the Shores of the said River, and between the said Station-Point, northerly, and the Falls of Trenton, southerly, shall, as to Jurisdiction, be hereafter deemed and considered as Parts and Parcels of the State to which such insulated dry Land doth lie nearest nearest at the Time of making and executing this Agreement, and that from said Falls of Trenton to the State of Delaware, southerly, Biles's-Island near Trenton, Windmill-Island opposite to Philadelphia, League-Island, Mud or Fort-Island, Hog-Island and Little Tinnicum-Islands, shall be annexed to the State of Pennsylvania, and considered as Parts and Parcels thereof; and that Biddle's or Newbold's-Island, Burlington-Island, Petty's-Islands, Redbank-Island, Harmanus Helm's-Island, Chester-Island and Shivers's-Island, shall be annexed to the State of New-Jersey, and considered as Parts and Parcels thereof; and that all other Islands within said River, between the Falls of Trenton and the State of Delaware, which are not herein before particularly enumerated, shall be hereafter deemed and considered as Parts and Parcels of the State to which such Island doth lie nearest at the Date hereof; and that all Islands which may hereafter be formed within the said River, shall be classified and annexed to the Jurisdiction of either State according to the same Principle.

Fourthly. That this present Agreement, and every Article and Clause therein contained, shall be suspended and take no Effect until each of the Legislatures of the State of Pennsylvania and New-Jersey respectively shall have passed Laws approving of and ratifying the same, which being done the said Agreement shall then be considered as a Joint-Compact between the said States and the Citizens thereof respectively, and be forever thereafter irrevocable by either of the said contracting States without the Concurrence of the other. In Witness whereof we, the Commissioners of the aforesaid States, have set our Hands and Seals to two Instruments of the Agreement, one for each State, dated this twenty-sixth Day of April, Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Eighty-three.

Mr. Henderson, from the Committee appointed for that Purpose, brought in a Representation and Remonstrance to Congress, in the Words following, viz.

" To the UNITED STATES in CONGRESS assembled.

The REPRESENTATION and REMONSTRANCE of the LEGISLATIVE-COUNCIL and GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the State of NEW-JERSEY,

Sherweth,

THAT the Legislature of this State is informed that the important Subject of the Western, or what is commonly called the Crown Lands, is soon to be reconsidered, and finally determined by Congress, especially as far as relates to the Cession made by the Legislature of the State of Virginia in January, 1781, of a Part of the western Country or vacant Territory. The Legislature cannot but express their Surprise on hearing that the Consideration of the Subject is resumed by Congress so speedily after its late Discussion therein, as appears by an Act of Congress of the 18th of April last past, which is contained in the following Words :

" That as a further Mean as well of hastening the Extinguishment of the Debts as of establishing the Harmony of the United States, it be recommended to the States which have passed no Acts towards complying with the Resolutions of Congress of the 6th September and 10th October, 1780, relative to the Cession of territorial Claims, to make the liberal Cessions therein recommended ; and to the States which may have passed Acts complying with the said Resolutions in Part only, to revise and complete such Compliance ; " which said Act has been officially laid before us during the present Sitting, and appears designed by Congress to be transmitted to every State in the Union, not only to the Legislatures thereof, but to the People at large : The Legislature of this State must be of Opinion, that the latter Part of the said Recommendation of Congress was expressly applicable to the Act of the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as the Cession thereby made has heretofore been deemed by Congress a partial one, and by this State partial, unjust and illiberal.

The Legislature, to avoid unnecessary Repetition, beg Leave, in the most earnest Manner, to call the Attention of Congress to the Records in their Possession, of the Proceedings of the Legislature of this State with Regard to the present Subject, beginning with their Representation of the 16th June, 1778, and at different Periods since, in which are fully contained the just and uncontrovertible Claims of this State to its full Proportion of all vacant Territory.

It is particularly disagreeable to have Occasion to trouble Congress with so many Applications on this Head ; but the Importance of the Subject, the Danger of so much Property being unjustly wrested from us, together with its being our indispensable Duty, in Justification and Defence of the Rights of the People we represent, must be our Apology. We cannot be silent, while viewing one State aggrandizing herself by the unjust Detention of that Property which has been procured by the common Blood and Treasure of the whole ; and which, on every Principle of Reason and Justice, is vested in Congress for the Use and general Benefit of the Union they represent.

They doubt not the Disposition of Congress to redress every Grievance that may be laid before them ; and are of Opinion, that there can be no greater Cause for Complaint, nor more just Reasons for Redress, than in the present Case.

They do therefore express their Dissatisfaction with the Cession of western Territory made by the State of Virginia in January, 1781, as being far short of affording that Justice which is equally due to the United States at large, and request that Congress will not accept of the said Cession, but that they will press upon the said State to make a more liberal Surrender of that Territory of which they claim so boundless a Proportion.

The Legislature place the utmost Confidence in the Wisdom and Justice of Congress, and assure themselves, that as far as it lies in the Power of that august Body, the Rights of every State in the Union will be strictly maintained.

Which
